HONG KONG ACCOUNTING UPDATES 2017

3.5 CPD units
TS20170923

In today's increasingly global economy, changes are constant – accounting professionals must continuously keep themselves updated to remain relevant into the future. Globalisation has brought national economies together and has driven the integration of various commercial sectors. It has brought massive impact to the accounting industry and led to convergence and harmonization of accounting standards. The IASB (International Accounting Standards Board) has released a number of critical and far-reaching accounting standards in 2014 to 2017, which impact every business.

ACCA Hong Kong is committed to keep our members well-informed about every important change in the industry. We are pleased to announce we have invited seasoned experts from Big Four accounting firms, to deliver a seminar that explore the content, implementation and financial impact of such accounting standards. The seminar serves as an annual update on latest developments in accounting standards affecting Hong Kong.

Areas to be covered in this seminar:

- IFRS 9 – Financial instruments (Implementation challenges for corporates)
- IFRS 15 – Revenue from contracts with customers (application issues)
- IFRS 16 – Leases (application issues and solutions)
- IFRS 17 – Insurance contracts
