Member reprimanded***

On 25 July 2024, the Consent Orders Chair of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) found proved the following allegations against a member, Mr Seeven Armoogum, of Carshalton, Surrey, United Kingdom:

Allegations

Allegation 1

Between 17 April 2023 and 03 May 2024, Mr Seeven Armoogum failed to cooperate with ACCA in its monitoring and enforcement of compliance with ACCA's regulations and failed to supply ACCA with information necessary to enable it to complete its monitoring process efficiently, contrary to Global Practising Regulations 14(2) and 14(3) (as applicable in 2023-2024).

Allegation 2

By reason of the conduct set out at Allegation 1 above, Mr Seeven Armoogum is guilty of misconduct pursuant to bye-law 8(a)(i).

The Consent Orders Chair ordered that Mr Seeven Armoogum be reprimanded and pay costs to ACCA in the sum of £1,539.50.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's finding and orders by way of a press release, as soon as practicable.

About ACCA

We are ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants), a globally recognised professional accountancy body providing qualifications and advancing standards in accountancy worldwide.

Founded in 1904 to widen access to the accountancy profession, we've long championed inclusion and today proudly support a diverse community of over 252,500 members and 526,000 future members in 180 countries.

Our forward-looking qualifications, continuous learning and insights are respected and valued by employers in every sector. They equip individuals with the business and finance expertise and ethical judgment to create, protect, and report the sustainable value delivered by organisations and economies.

Guided by our purpose and values, our vision is to develop the accountancy profession the world needs. Partnering with policymakers, standard setters, the donor community, educators and other accountancy bodies, we're strengthening and building a profession that drives a sustainable future for all.
