

17 September 2024

Health Committee determined that the disciplinary proceedings against the member should be deferred until 17 January 2025 and the members suspension should continue*

On 06 September 2024 the Health Committee of ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants) reviewed proceedings against a Member. The hearing took place in private.

The Health Committee determined that the disciplinary proceedings against the Member should be deferred until 17 January 2025; the membership should continue to be suspended; and a review hearing should take place before 17 January 2025 with the independent medical report being provided to a Health Committee no later than 10 January 2025.

ACCA's regulations require ACCA to publish the Committee's findings and orders by way of a news release, as soon as practicable.

- ends -

For media enquiries, contact:

ACCA News Room

E: newsroom@accaglobal.com

Twitter/X: @ACCANews

accaglobal.com

About ACCA

We are ACCA (the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants), a globally recognised professional accountancy body providing qualifications and advancing standards in accountancy worldwide.

Founded in 1904 to widen access to the accountancy profession, we've long championed inclusion and today proudly support a diverse community of over 252,500 members and 526,000 future members in 180 countries.

Our forward-looking qualifications, continuous learning and insights are respected and valued by employers in every sector. They equip individuals with the business and finance expertise and ethical judgment to create, protect, and report the sustainable value delivered by organisations and economies.

Guided by our purpose and values, our vision is to develop the accountancy profession the world needs. Partnering with policymakers, standard setters, the donor community, educators and other accountancy bodies, we're strengthening and building a profession that drives a sustainable future for all.

Find out more at: www.accaglobal.com