

COMMITTEE	PRE-NEWS RELEASE PUBLISHED AND FOR HOW LONG?	POST-NEWS RELEASE PUBLISHED AND FOR HOW LONG?	REASONS PUBLISHED AND FOR HOW LONG?
Disciplinary Committee	YES – removed once the post-release is published.	YES – for five years.	YES – for five years.
Appeal Committee	YES – removed once the post-release is published.	YES – for five years.	YES – five years.
Admissions and Licensing Committee Hearings only.	YES – removed once the post-release is published.	YES – five years.	YES – for five years.
Admissions and Licensing Committee Non-contentious (decision made by Chair on papers) only.	NO	NO	NO	Considered by a Chair on papers in private. These reasons are not published. Please note: an outcome of a non-contentious Admissions and Licencing case may be that the relevant person is readmitted. However, the reasons in relation to their exclusion as a result of a previous Disciplinary Committee may still appear on our website as per our publicity obligations.
Interim Order Committee	YES – removed once the post-release is published.	YES – for the duration of the order only.	NO	Hearings are always held in private and the reasons are not published. Any Interim Order post-news release will remain on the website for the duration of the Interim Order only.
Consent Order Committee	NO	YES – for five years.	YES – for five years.	Considered by a Chair on papers in private.
Health Committee	NO	YES – for five years.	NO	Hearings are always held in private.
Regulatory Assessor Committee	NO	NO	YES – for five years.

Note: If all or part of the hearing is heard in private session, the Committee will prepare both private and public reasons. The public reasons are publicised on ACCA's web site; in certain circumstances the hearing being held in private session will require ACCA to anonymise all or some parties named in the Committee's decision.